Salvos Stores Opens Exciting New Store at Nightcliff

The Northern Territory will be welcoming its seventh installment to the Salvos Stores family.

Salvos Stores is proud to announce the opening of the new Nightcliff store situated at 48 Progress Drive, Nightcliff on Saturday 13th of October from 9am. Visit the store on the day and say 'Hi' to Store Manager Lizzy and her friendly tea,

The growing trend to recycle has taken the country by storm with Salvos Stores popping up across the Territory. Nightcliff has arguably become one of Darwin's most popular suburbs, as it is situated directly on the coastal fringe. The location of the store will attract beachcombers and market dwellers to volunteer, donate and shop.

Allen Dewhirst, Salvos Stores CEO, has praised the opening, 'The new store will be an excellent addition to the beachcomber culture of Nightcliff. The new store will offer pre-loved clothing, accessories, bric-a-brac, books and toys to bargain hunters.'

The seasons have changed and customers are seeking alternative retail outlets for more unique pieces. The economic climate has transformed the everyday shopper into the bargain hunter. Being fashion forward and environmentally friendly has never been so easy.

The opening of the new store ties in with the 'Changing Lives Since 1883' campaign which is running during September and October.
